COMMUNITY HOUSE SEEKING OBJECTS FOR HISTORY EXHIBIT

December 16, 2016 – As the Community House prepares for its grand re-opening, a plan is underway to exhibit local historical memorabilia in the Founders' Room's restored cabinets.

The Community House is seeking items that pertain to its history; for example, photographs, documents of importance, awards, plaques, china, souvenirs, seashell art (particularly any award-winning vintage exhibits from the Shell Fair) – and almost anything a person would deem of interest to the history of the Community House.

The exhibit cases run along the north wall in the historic North room and can accommodate items approximately 15 inches high. Items can be donated to the Community House or be exhibited on loan.
