HISTORICAL VILLAGE EVENT TO FEATURE MUSIC, DANCING

February 13, 2015 - The Sanibel Historical Village's March 19 "Under the Stars" Garden Party and Dance will feature music and dancing with a surprising twist.

"We have something special planned that we know our guests will enjoy," said Gayle Pence, one of the party planners. "It's going to be a lively party."

The music will be by J. Robert of Marco Island, an award-winning songwriter and recording artist. Known for his "Floribbean" sound, he will be playing a variety of music, all suitable for dancing. "The music will emphasize the style of the 1940s," said Nanette Laurion, another one of the event planners. "The style will have something for everyone."

A dance team featuring Sheridin Wright of The Enchanted Ballroom on Sanibel will be there as well, getting the party started in style.

The party will take place under tents on the historical village grounds, with an open bar and light supper included.
